

LEO DAYS AS

Michael Jackson

Leo Days was born in Honolulu, Hawaii and raised in Flint, Michigan. In 1983, an impressionable two-year-old was awestruck by a sequin-embellished, moonwalking Michael Jackson on the television special, “Motown 25: Yesterday, Today, Forever.” Leo first learned to moonwalk as a child, and remained a fan of the King of Pop throughout the years.

Days began performing at the age of 15 as Elvis Presley, and always wanted to perform as Michael Jackson, but apprehensions about being able to pull off “the look” kept him from pursuing that dream. Leo began working for the show, “Legends in Concert,” and met a Michael Jackson Tribute Artist who took Leo under his wing and mentored him by teaching him makeup techniques and the intricacies of the dance moves. Leo took that knowledge and practiced for years, finally hitting the stage as MJ for the first time at a nightclub in Phoenix, Arizona.

From there, he was invited to perform as Michael Jackson at the Michigan Elvis Festival in 2019, and in 2020, made his debut as the King of Pop on the “Legends in Concert” stage. Most recently, he pulled off the unthinkable, performing a one-man-show where he opened as Michael and did a 20-minute costume change into The King of Rock & Roll, Elvis Presley at Queen Casino in Marquette, Iowa.

Leo wishes to bring the energy and magic that Michael brought to the stage, and he is grateful to be able to share the legacy of Michael Jackson with audiences everywhere.

STEVE BOBBITT AS

Rod Stewart

The character of Rod Stewart in modern rock and roll, as well as pop music, is nearly universal. There are, indeed, few people – young or old – who do not recognize his persona.

The REAL Rod Stewart met Steve Bobbitt at a concert and said, “It’s like looking in a mirror!” It’s amazing – Steve has the look, the moves, and the sound of Rod Stewart. Steve is an engaging performer who involves the audience in his show.

His idiosyncrasies attire, mixing bright yellow satin sports coats with leopard skin tights and red, high-top tennis shoes, along with his spiked, blonde gravity defying hair . . are well-recognized trademarks. Steve’s hair, face, and voice are as close to the original as it gets. He has performed as Rod all over the country for crowds in every walk of life. He has also worked on Carnival and Royal Caribbean Cruise Lines and has been in many commercials.

Steve’s repertoire of Rod Stewart’s hits span the original entertainer’s nearly 50 years of classics such as Maggie Mae, Tonite’s the Night, Forever Young, and Do Ya Think I’m Sexy?. Steve has been performing this persona for over 26 years!

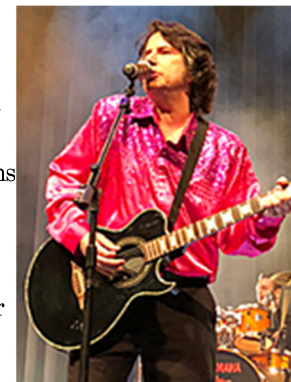

ERIC DIAMOND AS

Neil Diamond

Eric Diamond has been performing as Neil Diamond for the last 17 years and has been Wisconsin’s Favorite Neil Diamond Tribute Artist since 2009. He has been told on countless occasions that he “sounds more like Neil than Neil Diamond does.” Primarily focusing his solo shows around his home base of southeastern Wisconsin, for the last eight years Eric has toured the casinos, theaters, and festivals of the Midwest as a headliner with the Ultimate Legends show.

In the beginning, Eric worked with several other entertainers and tribute artists as part of a duo (most notably Forever in Blue Suede and Diamonds & Martinis) to provide an energetic evening filled with variety, good music and great times. Eventually going solo and taking his one-man “Neil & Nostalgia” show on the road, Eric has been wowing crowds not only with his spot-on vocal performance of Neil Diamond’s biggest hits, but also with his tributes to artists like Johnny Cash, John Cougar Mellencamp and the nostalgic “one-hit wonders” of the 60s and 70s.

Over the last several years, Eric has been showcased on WITI Fox 6’s Wake Up and Real Milwaukee shows, as well as CBS 58 Sunday Morning’s “Diamond in the Rough” feature story.

RILEY JENKINS AS

Dean Martin

For his very first time ever, Riley Jenkins will be debuting his tribute to the man Elvis Presley dubbed “The King of Cool,” Mr. Dean Martin at the 2023 Birthday Bash.

His second favorite singer after “The King of Rock ‘n Roll,” hear Riley croon to songs such as “That’s Amore” and “Everybody Loves Somebody” from one of the famed members of “The Rat Pack,” and comedy duo “Martin and Lewis.”

SHAMPRIEL MORRISSE & JANINE HILL AS

Aretha Franklin

The dynamic duo are beautiful, talented, and becoming a force to be reckoned with. Shampriel Morrisse and Janine Hill both come from strong musical roots, which are showcase each time they perform.

Janine and Shampriel joined the band three years ago, and have been traveling to various tribute acts such as Motown Tribute, Neil Diamond, Dolly Parton, Lionel Richie, and a host of other artist and tribute acts.

We are delighted to have you join us for the 20th Annual Elvis Birthday Bash to celebrate The King's 87th birthday – the Legend lives! We can't believe he's been gone 45 years.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank all the people who've helped us, for without them we would not be enjoying this wonderful show.

First we would like to thank the entertainers and band for their talent, dedication, and love for The Legends. To Dale Elliott, our seasoned emcee, and to the sound and video crews.

Next, thanks to Dale, Joyce, Sarah, and the staff at Weston Lanes for all "going the extra mile" to plan and promote the events. Thanks also to the wait staff, cooks, and others. Weston Lanes really is a very well-oiled machine that can accommodate a wide range of events. Be sure to call them for your next banquet, reception, or party of any size – you'll be glad you did.

Thanks also to Fabiano Brothers, our local Budweiser beer distributor, and Midwest Radio and Jeff Heinz for all their promotional help.

And last – but most importantly – thanks to our friends and family who volunteer at the events, run errands, or anything else that needs to be done. We are grateful for your support!

We hope you enjoy the show – long live the marvelous music of these Legends!

Thank you . . . thank you very much!
